Customized Group Instruction

CESL has designed and implemented a wide variety of customized programs for groups of varying sizes. Our intensive and part-time programs are varied and diverse; however, we understand that business, industrial, educational, and other groups may have special needs that go beyond our regular programs.

A customized program, such as English language, English for specific purposes, Teacher Training, or other related fields, may

- ...Include special curricular emphasis
- ...Be for a special group
- ...Have special dates and varying lengths of study
- ...Take place at CESL, in southern Arizona, or abroad
- ...Be online, in class, or both

Kinds of Programs Offered

SKILL INTENSIVE WORKSHOPS: These workshops are for small groups (2-5 people) and focus on any general English skill you would like to work on (such as speaking, pronunciation or writing).

COURSES ON DEMAND: These courses are for small groups (2-5 people) and focus on any specific English that you might need (such as medical English, business English, or TEFL training).

PORTABLE CLASSES: These are regular CESL classes offered at your location (in southern Arizona or in your country) for larger groups (6+ people).

CUSTOMIZED PROGRAMS: These are fully customized programs for larger groups (6+ people). The content, time, dates and location are designed especially for you.

International Groups: Please notify CESL at least three months in advance for special group programming to arrange accommodations and allow time for visa processing. For more information about a program for your group, please contact Linda Chu at ceslgrps@email.arizona.edu

Local Groups: For groups in Tucson or southern Arizona, please contact Sumayya Racy at ceslgrps@email.arizona.edu.

English language training in a wide variety of forms is available through Customized programs. CESL can create programs focusing on specialized language training. This includes but is not limited to English for a wide variety of professions, business, US cultural studies, or general language training. Customized language training programs can be stand-alone programs, or participants can be partially integrated into our regular programs depending on goals of instruction.

Arizona's First University.

The Center for English as a Second Language at the University of Arizona is accredited by the Commission on English Language Program Accreditation and agrees to uphold the CEA Standards for English Language Programs and Institutions. CEA is recognized by the U.S. Secretary of Education as nationally recognized accrediting agency for English language programs in the U.S.

Accreditation by CEA signifies that an English language program has met nationally-accepted standards of excellence and assures students and their sponsors that the English language instruction and related services will be of the highest quality.

Mission Statement

The mission of the Center for English as a Second Language (CESL) at the University of Arizona is threefold:

1. To provide superior English language instruction
2. To serve the linguistic and professional development needs of the University of Arizona and the greater global community
3. To encourage respect for cultural and linguistic diversity through sensitivity, professionalism, and collaboration both on and off campus in an effort to promote worldwide cultural understanding.

What are the advantages of a Customized program?

For students:

- Improve your knowledge of English in the area that is most important for you.
- Have class when it fits your schedule.
- Have class where you work or at another convenient location.

For employers:

- Your employees will get training in the English they need most.
- Our flexible times, dates and locations make it very convenient for your employees to take English classes.
- You can increase employee retention and loyalty by providing them with this excellent opportunity.
