Study with Us

Since 2005, English teachers from the University of Arizona in Tucson have traveled to Nogales, Sonora to offer English courses. What started as an idea has turned into one of the most successful and recognized English language programs in Northern Sonora. That is why our students keep coming back. Come see for yourself!

Eligibility All students enrolled in the intensive English program must be 17 years of age at the beginning of their program and literate in a least one language.

Registration & Placement Test

The test for new students is given at Escuela Gante before classes begin. Check the webpage www.cesl.arizona.edu/Nogales.htm for specific dates. Students must register and pay for the course before taking the placement test.

Professional English Program Certificate

CESL students at the advanced levels may earn a Professional English Certificate. Classes that specialize in English as used in professional settings are offered in the evening. To earn the Professional English Certificate students must complete the High Intermediate 2 or test into, and complete, the 3 specialized English classes at the advanced level: Advanced Business Case Studies: Written Communications, Advanced Business Case Studies: Oral Communications, and Pronunciation.

All courses are 30 hours each. The classes are independent of one another and students wishing to increase their marketability are welcome to participate in one or more of these advanced classes.

Course Descriptions

Advanced Business Case Studies: Written Communications (30 hrs)

The purpose of this course is to develop critical writing skills via analysis of business practices, scenarios, and outcomes. Students will expand their vocabulary and idioms as used in the context of Business English. Students will concentrate on formal written presentations (e-mail, letters, memos, and reports) while cultivating a better understanding of cultural differences and cross-cultural communication. Students will practice necessary grammar and style involved in the production of these separate forms of communication, paying particular attention to choice of vocabulary, level of formality, and business etiquette.

Advanced Business Case Studies: Oral Communications (30 hrs)

The purpose of this course is to develop critical communications skills via analysis of business practices, scenarios, and outcomes. Students will expand their vocabulary and idioms as used in the context of Business English. Students will concentrate on oral presentations while cultivating a better understanding of cultural differences and cross-cultural communication.

Pronunciation (30 hrs)

This course is for high intermediate and advanced students who want to focus on pronunciation of American English through intensive practice. Rhythm, stress, intonation, and accuracy at the word level will be covered. Coursework will involve increasing language fluency, analyzing the sounds of American English, and developing monitoring skills.

General English (all levels)*

Beginning, Low Intermediate, Intermediate, High Intermediate. Students will practice all English skills including speaking, reading, and writing to develop fluency for accurate communication in general cultural and business situations.

*These courses do not contribute to the Professional English Program Certificate requirements.
