

The University of Arizona 2007-2008 CESL HOUSING APPLICATION

The University of Arizona provide campus housing on a "space-available" basis for students enrolled in the Center for English as a Second Language (CESL). The number of rooms is very limited. We cannot guarantee that space will be available. If you wish to live in campus housing, complete this application form and mail/fax it immediately with payment for the ENTIRE RENT AMOUNT. Applications will not be accepted without entire payment included.

Entire amount= $100 non-refundable application fee + semester rent (see other side for rent amount).

$100 of this payment is a non-refundable application fee. 100% of your payment is refundable if we are unable to offer you campus housing. There are no refunds once you have checked into the residence hall or cancel.

2008 Entire Spring semester: Halls open for Spring Semester at noon, January 13. You must check in no later than 7pm on January 15, 2008. If you plan to arrive later than 7pm, January 15, please notify Residence Life so your room is not cancelled. If you need to cancel your spring housing, you must notify Residence Life by December 14, 2007 in order to receive a refund of your rent ($100 is a non-refundable application fee). You must check in for Spring 2 session by 5:00pm on Friday, March 14 or you must wait to check in at 10:00am Sunday, March 23 after Spring Break closure.

MEDICAL/SPECIAL NEEDS

Do you need to request an accommodation in our residence halls for a disability or medical condition? All accommodation requests must be submitted to the University's Disability Resource Center (DRC), not Residence Life. First, complete and submit your Housing Application to Residence Life. Next, review who is eligible and what is required to request an accommodation, found on the DRC website at: <http://drc.arizona.edu/newstudent> Then, submit your accommodation request using the DRC's online form.
