

The Center for English as a Second Language The University of Arizona

Selected Special Programs

- Site for pre-academic orientation and training for Hubert H. Humphrey Fellows sponsored through USIA and the Institute for International Education.
- On-site language instruction to selected employees of Texas Instruments.
- Vocation-specific ESL instruction for employees of University Medical Center.
- Advanced Business English course for employees of the Chamberlain Group, Nogales, Sonora, Mexico.
- Instruction and curriculum for Medical Professions as mandated by the Contextual Learning Program under Federal Grant administered by Pima Community Services.
- English language skills for workers entitled to employment retraining for the Arizona Department of Economic Security.
- Tokyo Kokusai Daigaku (Tokyo International University) Spring Study Abroad program--up to 30 undergraduate students yearly for a six-week program of intensive English and American Studies at the University of Arizona.
- Teacher training for Santa Cruz County (Arizona) Department of Workforce Development.
- Sheltered English Immersion training for the faculty of Lincoln Elementary School in Nogales, Arizona, 2005.
- Teacher development programs for the Indian Oasis-Baboquivari School District on the Tohono O'Odham Reservation, Sells, Arizona.
- English language training site for officers in the Saudi Arabian Royal Guard providing them intensive English language instruction with a special component on vocabulary and concepts of dog psychology prior to special professional training in the U.S.
- five-week intensive English American cultural studies and public school internship for 20 to 30 third-year baccalaureate students attending Kanto Gakuin University in Kamakura, Japan.
- English language and American cultural training study abroad for selected undergraduates from Trident College, Nagoya, Japan.
- EFL teacher hiring and training and ESP curriculum development for English for Agribusiness for the Sociedad Cooperativa Agropecuaria del Distrito de Altar, the largest agribusiness cooperative in the Republic of Mexico.
- Short-term on-site intensive language and cultural orientation to Lion Corporation executives and executives from other major Japanese companies for the Tokyo Center for Language and Culture.
- Faculty exchange program with the University of Dresden, Germany.

- Intensive English instruction to non-native English speaking players on the Colorado Rockies Baseball Club during spring training and throughout the year.

Selected Programming History by Region

Asia

- ESL teacher-training seminar for English instructors of Kangning Junior College of Nursing, Taipei (May 2002).
- Training provider for the Samantha Smith Memorial Exchange program in which students from the Kazakh State University of World Languages and the University of Arizona spend a semester on each other's campus, 1991-1995.
- Concurrent workshops in American English and laboratory classroom training to Chinese teachers of English in Taichung, Taiwan, Republic of China and at CESL here in Tucson, 1992-1994.
- Program for seven Pakistani educators in scholarly journal production and the use of film in the EFL classroom sponsored by USIA / the Academy for Educational Development, 1994.
- Summer programs of intensive English and cross-cultural training for students and scholars from the KANDA Institute, Tokyo, Japan, 1974 to 1987.
- Faculty exchange program between CESL and The Beijing Institute of Foreign Languages, People's Republic of China, 1980-1983.

Europe and Eastern Europe

- Teacher training to faculty from the University Medical School of Pecs, Hungary, funded by the World Bank for a program in English for Medical Applications, 1995 to 1996.
- Internships for two teachers of Russian sponsored by the American Council of Teachers of Russian, 1995.
- Seminars in English language teaching methods and curriculum development strategies for EFL scholars and department chairs from the Commonwealth of Independent States, USIA / the Academy for Educational Development, 1992.
- Seminars and lectures on the U.S. Experience and English language training methodology to Norwegian scholars sponsored by USIA and Meridian House International, 1991.
- Appraisal and evaluation of English teaching capabilities in Romania and Bulgaria sponsored by the USIA, 1991.
- English language training and U.S. cultural studies program to study abroad students from the University de Alicante, Spain, 1990-1991.
- Fulbright Scholarships awarded to CESL faculty to provide lectures on applied linguistics and TESL in Italy, Turkey, Romania and Yugoslavia.
- Program in English language training and applied linguistics for Soviet professors of English sponsored by IREX, 1981 to 1983.

Latin America

- Six-week program of workshops, seminars, lectures, and school visits for 20 Chilean primary and secondary EFL teachers and MOE observer on educational change and reform. Sponsored by Chilean Ministry of Education, 1996.
- EFL curriculum design and teacher development for the Universidad del Noroeste in Hermosillo, Sonora, Mexico, 1994-1995.
- Intensive in-service teacher training and TOEFL administration for faculty of Colegio Chapultepec, Culiacan, 1997.
- Visiting delegate to CESL from the Brazilian Ministry of Education and the Federal Technical School of Paraiba. Sponsored by the Brazilian Technological and High School Education National Secretary, 1993.
- Design consultation and intensive teacher in-service training for a new baccalaureate program in TEFL at the Universidad Feminina de Sinaloa, Mexico, 1992.
- Appraisal of EFL language training capabilities at three autonomous state universities in the Republic of Mexico (Aguascalientes, Sinaloa - Culiacan, Sinaloa - Los Mochis), 1992.
- American cultural orientation workshops for Venezuelan oil industry executives. Sponsored by LASPAU, 1991.
- Seminars on English language training methodologies to teachers from Mexico City school districts. Sponsored by USIA and University of the Americas, 1990.
- Seminars on ESL classroom management and the U.S. Experience for binational center cultural coordinators from Mexico. Sponsored by USIA and Meridian House International, 1990.
- Content-based EFL curricula for assembly-line workers and management for automotive industry applications, Ford Motor Company, Hermosillo, Sonora, Mexico, 1990.
- English language training for JTPA retrainees in the U.S. Mexico border areas. Sponsored by the Chrysler Foundation and Arizona State Board of Education, 1989.
- Implemented a program of intensive English language training for Mexican mining executives. Sponsored by the Phelps Dodge Mining Company, 1989.
- In-service workshops on English language training for Sonoran teachers of ESL. Sponsored by El Instituto Mexicano Americano de Relaciones Culturales (IMARC), 1993, 1987.
- English language and U.S. cultural studies training program for Central American auditors. Sponsored by USAID, 1987.

Africa and the Middle East

- Intensive English Program evaluations conducted at Bogazici and Marmara Universities in Istanbul, Turkey, 1998.
- English training for Turkish scholars under government sponsorship in the U.S. for graduate studies, 1994-1996.

- Fifteen Egyptian Ministry of Education administrators hosted for a one-week workshop on evaluating EFL in-service development programs. Sponsored by USAID, the Egyptian Binational Fulbright Commission and the Academy for Educational Development, 1993.
- Chief of Party for an EFL textbook team, Rabat, Morocco hosted for research and training in EFL methodology and American cultural studies. Sponsored by USIA and the Academy for Educational Development, 1992.
- English language training site for officers in the Royal Omani Police providing them intensive English language instruction prior to admission of academic programs.
- English language and American cultural studies training for 140 undergraduate and graduate students from Lebanon. Sponsored by the Hariri Foundation, 1985-1986.

Additional Programs and Projects

- Publisher the Journal of Intensive English Studies, a scholarly forum for the international exchange of ideas among intensive English programs.
- Workshop entitled, Fostering Common Ground: The Strategic Relationship Between the IEP and the MATESL Program in U.S. Higher Education. USIA / NAFSA Field Service, held at CESL, 1996.
- Workshop entitled, The IEP in Higher Education: Developing a Professional Blueprint. USIA / NAFSA Field Service, held at CESL, 1994.
- Teacher development seminars on contrastive analysis and error prediction for Spanish-speakers. The U.S. Federal Bureau of Prisons, 1993 and 1994.
- Seminars for EFL administrators from multi-regional institutions of higher education. USIA / The Experiment in International Living, 1992.
- Professional workshop on evaluation and ethics for 25 U.S. directors of intensive English programs. Sponsored by NAFSA: Association of International Educators, 1991.
- Spanish language and Latin American cultural orientation for field personnel from the U.S. Geological Survey, 1990.
- American Language Studies, evaluation and review, The State University of New Jersey, Rutgers, 1989.

For more information please contact:

Dr. Alfred Stover
Assistant Director of Outreach and Development
The University of Arizona
Center for English as a Second Language
CESL 100, Building #24
P.O. Box 210024
Tucson, Arizona 85721
Telephone: (520) 621-9307; (520)-621-1362
Fax: (520) 621-9180
Email: astover@email.arizona.edu
www.cesl.arizona.edu