General information about endorsement:

- The CESL English Language Endorsement is offered to currently enrolled, full-time (8- or 10-week session) CESL students, in good standing.
- Level 60, 70, or Academic Bridge Program students may apply for full endorsement to the university.
- IEP students with only two classes in Level 60 can apply, if those classes are Written Communication and Reading Skills.
- Students who have received any academic or behavioral warning letters from CESL may not be eligible to receive endorsement.
- Graduate student applicants must receive approval from the graduate department in which they plan to enroll before the end of the session. (Visit http://www.cesl.arizona.edu/endorsement for the 'Graduate Approval Form.' This form must be signed by the advisor in your intended graduate department or you will not be considered for endorsement).
- If you receive a TOEFL or IELTS score that is sufficient for admission to the University of Arizona before the endorsement committee convenes for the current session, you must notify the Endorsement Coordinator (Dr. Eddy White, ewhite3@email.arizona.edu) and withdraw your endorsement application.
- You will receive the result of this application by email after the CESL session ends. Students who receive endorsement may use it for one year from the date of issuance.
- Once you receive endorsement, you must speak with CESL’s Admissions and Student Services Manager, Amber Tetreau-Segura, immediately to discuss your transfer and immigration options.
- ENDORSEMENT COMMITTEE DECISIONS ARE FINAL, AND ARE NOT ELIGIBLE FOR APPEAL.
