There are many reasons that CESL is the best choice for English language study. We have more than 35 years of excellence in ESL, and we offer our students many advantages:

We are located in the heart of the University of Arizona campus.

- The University operates its own student health center, and major medical coverage is provided by CESL.
- The University of Arizona is a Research One University, with many nationally ranked departments.
- In addition to our own state-of-the-art computer labs, CESL students have access to all UA facilities, including the new Integrated Learning Center, campus computer labs, the University library system, and the UA recreation center.

CESL Faculty average 20 years' experience teaching ESL, both in the U.S. and abroad.

- All faculty meet a minimum requirement of a master's degree in ESL.
- Key faculty possess doctorates.
- CESL faculty and staff have published more than 15 ESL textbooks.
- CESL has a full-time student advisor to help students succeed in CESL and move on to university study.

CESL students can visit regularly scheduled University classes.

- CESL students can listen to university lectures.
- CESL offers a Bridge Class where CESL students attend one university class for a semester.
- Many CESL students apply for and attend the University of Arizona when they achieve the necessary TOEFL score for admission.

CESL plans many activities for students to practice English with native speakers.

- Weekend excursions
- Conversation Partners
- Local School Visits
- Social Activities
- Tourist trips throughout Arizona

There are successful CESL alumni living and working around the world.

- Rene Zehnder, Switzerland, 2003, a Ph.D. student and research assistant at the UA in optical science
- Masahiro Sakai, Japan, 2003, Takenaka Corporation, Germany
- Joseph Bisso Eya, Cameroon, 1975, Commission de Passation des Marches, Cameroon
- Gonzalo Valenzuela, Chile, 1995, Marketing Manager Sub City Records, Los Angeles
